

Mark Squire has extensive Business Improvement, Transformation & Quality experience gained in the private sector and major mobile telecoms providers. Mark joined CPFT in 2022 as he wanted to help drive improvement and make a positive difference to users of the Trust's services, it's staff and partners. Outside of work, Mark relaxes by getting out into nature, brewing real ale (and drinking it!), is a keen photographer and loves traveling to new places.